Melco sweeps four awards at the 2019 edition of Stelliers Greater China

Winning in the Human Resources, Food & Beverage, Chef, Sommelier/Mixologist categories

Macau, Friday, November 15, 2019 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment announces it has swept four awards at the 2019 edition of Stelliers Greater China. Launched in 2014 and formerly known as The Hotelier Awards, Stelliers is the only accolade in Asia that honors the dedicated professionals of the hotel industry, celebrating the outstanding achievements of individuals' professional excellence across the sector. The four award winners recognized from the Melco team include: Ms. Raquel Nogueira, Vice President of Human Resources, City of Dreams Macau, for the Human Resources category; Mr. Perry Yuen, Vice President of VIP Services and F&B Gaming Operations, City of Dreams Macau, for the Food & Beverage category, Mr. Wilson Fam, Executive Chef of Morpheus, City of Dreams, for the Chef category; and Mr. Joe Yang, Hotel Sommelier of Altira Macau, for the Sommelier/ Mixologist category.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman & CEO of Melco said, "This is another wonderful achievement for the Melco team and we extend our congratulations to our four winners being recognized by Stelliers for their excellence and professionalism in the field of hospitality. At Melco, our people and culture are the key drivers of our success, helping us create the highest-quality, most memorable experiences for guests at our resorts. We are grateful for all our employees' dedication and hard work which enables us to achieve the culture of service excellence for which we are recognized today."

Stelliers Greater China also aims to place a spotlight on the industry to inspire the younger generation to pursue a career in hospitality. Winners were selected from applications representing more than 50 hotel brands from Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan.
