FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MELCO CROWN ENTERTAINMENT
PROVIDES STUDIO CITY PROJECT DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

MACAU, June 3, 2014 — Melco Crown Entertainment Limited (SEHK: 6883) (Nasdaq: MPEL) (“Melco Crown Entertainment” or the “Company” or “We”), a developer, owner and operator of casino gaming and entertainment resort facilities in Asia, announced today that the development of the Company’s Studio City project is on track for a mid-2015 opening. Studio City International Holdings Limited (“SCH”), the developer of Studio City, increased the Studio City construction budget (including construction and fit out costs, design and consultant fees) by approximately US$300 million, from approximately US$2.0 billion to approximately US$2.3 billion. The shareholders of SCH have agreed to make available additional equity on a pro rata basis to partially fund such budget increase. It is anticipated that the remaining amount of such budget increase will be paid for out of previously funded equity commitments from such shareholders. The total development cost of the project will continue to be funded by a combination of equity contributions from shareholders, proceeds from the Studio City senior notes and project loan.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Co-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Crown Entertainment, commented, “We are extremely excited about our newest integrated resort in Macau, which remains firmly on track to open in mid-2015. The property’s cinematic theme and vast array of unique entertainment and attractions will enhance Macau’s appeal as a leading tourist destination in Asia.

“Studio City’s prime location directly adjacent to the Lotus Bridge immigration border and proposed light rail stop is one of the property’s key competitive advantages given the anticipated growth and widespread development plan for Hengqin Island.

“We look forward to working closely with the Macau government to bring this unique property to realization.”

Safe Harbor Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements. These statements are made under the “safe harbor” provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company may also make written or oral forward-looking statements in its periodic reports to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), in its annual report to shareholders, in press releases and other written materials and in oral statements made by its officers, directors or employees to third parties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about the Company’s beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, and a number of factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. These factors include, but are not limited to, (i) growth of the gaming market and visitation in Macau and the Philippines, (ii) capital and credit market volatility, (iii) local and global economic conditions, (iv) our anticipated growth strategies, and (v) our future business development, results of operations and financial condition. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by words or phrases such as “may”, “will”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “target”, “aim”, “estimate”, “intend”, “plan”, “believe”, “potential”, “continue”, “is/are likely to” or other similar expressions. Further information regarding these and other risks, uncertainties or factors is included in the Company’s filings with the SEC. All information provided in this announcement is as of the date of this release, and the Company undertakes no duty to update such information, except as required under applicable law.
