Attaining the world's highest number of Michelin-Starred Restaurants for any Integrated Resort Operator Globally

- Jade Dragon is honored as Macau's only three Michelin-starred Cantonese restaurant
- City of Dreams becomes world's integrated resort with the most Michelin stars
- Alain Ducasse at Morpheus attains two stars less than six months after opening

Macau, Tuesday, December 11, 2018 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment is proud to achieve a record-breaking milestone with ten Michelin stars among six of Melco's signature restaurants by the Michelin guide 2019. Melco's dedication to excellence has been well-acknowledged by receiving more stars this year and remains the leading integrated resort operator in the world with the most Michelin-starred restaurants. These achievements have been instrumental to putting Macau on the world map of gastronomy.

The Michelin Guide Hong Kong Macau 2019 awards ceremony took place in Macau today. Among the six signature restaurants across Melco's properties, the ultimate French culinary experience provided by Alain Ducasse at Morpheus attained two stars in the latest Michelin guide in less than six months since its opening, while Jade Dragon has further set the benchmark for fine dining in Macau with three stars. The Melco restaurants that have received prestigious Michelin-grade culinary accolades include: City of Dreams' Cantonese culinary masterpiece Jade Dragon (three stars), contemporary French dining destination The Tasting Room (two stars), French contemporary haute cuisine by the legendary chef Alain Ducasse at Morpheus (two stars), sushi specialist Shinji by Kanesaka (one star), Studio City's Chinese restaurant Pearl Dragon (one star) and Altira Macau's Ying (one star). Chinese omakase style restaurant Yí, contemporary French cuisine Voyages at Morpheus, Mediterranean cuisine Aurora and Japanese tempura specialist Tenmasa at Altira Macau, and Bi Ying at Studio City are being recommended by the Michelin Guide 2019.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and CEO at Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said, "I am incredibly proud of Melco's Culinary Team for their ongoing dedication to excellence and the Michelin Guide's awards further affirms the global recognition for their efforts. Our success has only been made possible through the successful partnerships we have with our world-renowned chefs and the great teamwork within our teams. We are always committed to delivering the most exquisite dining experiences for our guests and we aim to raise the bar even higher, in order to offer our guests the finest, most memorable and luxurious experiences possible through our properties.”
