

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The House of Dancing Water begins a new chapter to deliver an unprecedented and further enhanced entertainment experience

Macau, Thursday, June 18, 2020 – Melco Resorts and Entertainment’s signature spectacle The House of Dancing Water has welcomed over 6 million spectators since its debut in 2010. As part of Melco’s never-ending efforts, focusing on creating world-leading hospitality and entertainment in Macau to attract new and quality tourism to the city, the spectacular water-based extravaganza will close temporarily from June 18, 2020 to be re-imagined with its legendary creative director Franco Dragone. The re-imagined new show will return in January 2021 in time for Chinese New Year to deliver an unprecedented and further enhanced entertainment experience.

Mr. David Sisk, Chief Operating Officer, Macau Resorts said, “We are honored that our collaboration with Franco Dragone has flourished through the immense success of The House of Dancing Water. The show will be re-imagined to offer new energy and excitement, enhancing its status as Macau’s must-see performance. As a sign of Melco’s commitment to local people, the re-imagined new show will also benefit from the continuous development of local talent.”

The Company will continue to invest in The House of Dancing Water – upholding its devotion to craftsmanship and its dedication to world-class entertainment offerings, designing unique masterpieces created to become beacons for the city.
